

AROUND THE BAR

Allison Melangton, President, Indiana Sports Corporation, discussed her role as President and CEO of the Super Bowl XLVI Host Committee, which has been widely regarded as the most engaging and successfully organized Super Bowl in history. Ms. Melangton touched on the unique facets of Indy's Super Bowl, including its role in helping the NFL craft its definition of a successful urban Super Bowl.

The Indianapolis Bar Foundation recognized key supporters at a donor appreciation reception held Tuesday, February 12, 2013, at the Conrad Indianapolis. Through the support of its many donors, the IBF was able to grant more than $140,000 to fund educational programs, provide support for pro bono activities and assist local community initiatives.

Attendees at the IndyBar February Meeting of Members enjoyed socializing with colleagues before lunch began. The IndyBar's tradition of monthly Meetings of Members has returned, with the next luncheon, Take a Law Student to Lunch, coming up on Thursday, March 21. Information and registration is available online at www.indybar.org

Indianapolis Bar Foundation President Kelley J. Johnson, Cohen & Malad LLP, welcomed donors and gave an update on the latest IBF news, including the IBF's "Impact of One" campaign, which was introduced in January 2013.
